COLLECTIVE/CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT
AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiffs, DAMANI BEDIAKO (“Bediako”) and KIA MILLER (“Miller”) (collectively “Plaintiffs”), on behalf of themselves and other Anti-Money Laundering investigator (“AML”) employees and former employees similarly situated, by and through undersigned counsel, file this Complaint against Defendants, P & G AUDITORS AND CONSULTANTS, LLC (“P&G”), GRC SOLUTIONS, LLC (“GRC”), and PGX, LLC (“PGX”) (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) and state as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiffs allege on behalf of themselves and other similarly situated current and former AML employees of the Defendants, who elect to opt into this action, pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. §§ 216(b), that they are: (i) entitled to unpaid wages from Defendants for overtime work for which they did not receive overtime premium pay, as required by law, (ii) entitled to liquidated damages pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§201 et seq; and (iii) declaratory relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2201.

2. Plaintiffs further complain on behalf of themselves, and a class of other similarly situated current and former AML employees of the Defendants, pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P.23, that they are entitled to back wages from Defendants for overtime work for which they did not receive overtime premium pay as required by the New York Labor Law §§ 650 et seq. (“NYLL”) and the supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations, and additional damages.

JURISDICTION

3. Jurisdiction in this Court is proper as the claims are brought pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, as amended (29 U.S.C. §201, et seq., hereinafter called the “FLSA”) to recover unpaid back wages, an additional equal amount as liquidated damages, obtain declaratory relief, and reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.

4. The jurisdiction of the Court over this controversy is based upon 29 U.S.C. §216(b).

5. This Court has the authority to grant declaratory relief pursuant to the FLSA and the Federal Declaratory Judgment Act (“DJA”), 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201-02.

6. This Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiffs’ New York state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367, because Plaintiffs’ state law claims arise from substantially the same factual nexus as his FLSA claims.

7. Venue is proper in the Southern District of New York because a substantial portion of the events forming the basis of this suit occurred in this District.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

59. P&G provides internal audit and risk management services for community banks, credit unions, foreign branches and agencies New York and elsewhere.

54. GRC provides internal audit and risk management services for community banks, credit unions, foreign branches and agencies New York and elsewhere.

55. PGX provides internal audit and risk management services for community banks, credit unions, foreign branches and agencies New York and elsewhere.

55. Plaintiffs were jointly employed by Defendants as non-exempt AMLs at all times relevant hereto, working on behalf of client Apple Bank.

56. Throughout their employment, Plaintiffs were paid on an hourly-basis in exchange for work they performed, to the extent Defendants paid them for their hours worked.

57. Plaintiffs and those similarly situated, routinely worked in excess of forty (40) hours per work week as part of their regular job duties.

58. Despite working more than forty (40) hours per week, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and those similarly situated, overtime compensation at a rate of time and a half their regular rate of pay for hours worked over forty in a work week.

59. Defendants have employed and are employing hundreds of other individuals as AMLs who performed and continue to perform the same or similar job duties under the same pay provision as Plaintiffs and the class members for their client Apple Bank.

60. Defendants have violated Title 29 U.S.C. §207 and the NYLL from at least January 2017 and continuing to date, in that:

- a. Plaintiffs worked in excess of forty (40) hours per work week for the period of employment with Defendants;
- b. No payments, and provisions for payment, have been made by Defendants to properly compensate Plaintiffs at the statutory rate of one and one-half times their regular rate for those hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per work week as provided by the FLSA and the NYLL; and
- c. Defendants have failed to maintain proper time records as mandated by the FLSA and the NYLL.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

61. Plaintiffs and the class members were all AMLs and performed the same or similar job duties as one another in that they provided clerical support to Defendants to support their anti-money laundering function for Defendants' client Apple Bank.

62. Plaintiffs and the class members were subjected to the same pay provisions in that they were paid an hourly rate, but not compensated at time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours in a work week. Thus, the class members are owed overtime wages for the same reasons as Plaintiffs.

63. Defendants' failure to compensate employees for hours worked in excess of 40 hours in a work week as required by the FLSA results from a policy or practice of failure to assure that AMLs are/were paid for overtime hours worked based on their uniform pay policy, applicable to all putative class members herein.

64. This policy or practice was applicable to Plaintiffs and the class members. Application of this policy or practice does/did not depend on the personal circumstances of Plaintiffs or those joining this lawsuit. Rather, the same policy or practice which resulted in the non-payment of overtime to Plaintiffs applies to all class members. Accordingly, the class members are properly defined as:

All AMLs who worked for Defendants within the last three years who were not compensated at time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours in one or more work weeks

65. Defendants knowingly, willfully, or with reckless disregard carried out its illegal pattern or practice of failing to pay overtime compensation with respect to Plaintiffs and the class members.

66. Defendants were aware that Plaintiffs were entitled to overtime pay for all overtime hours they worked and that there was no possible exemption applicable to them, because they were paid on an hourly rather than salary basis.

67. Defendants did not act in good faith or reliance upon any of the following in formulating their pay practices: (a) case law, (b) the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq., (c) Department of Labor Wage & Hour Opinion Letters or (d) the Code of Federal Regulations.

68. During the relevant period, Defendants violated § 7(a)(1) and § 15(a)(2), by employing employees in an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce within the meaning of the FLSA as aforesaid, for one or more work weeks without compensating such employees for their work at a rate of at least the time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours in a work week.

69. Defendants have acted willfully in failing to pay Plaintiffs and the class members in accordance with the law.

70. Defendants have failed to maintain accurate records of Plaintiffs' and the class members' work hours in accordance with the law.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

71. Plaintiffs sue on their own behalf and on behalf of a class of persons under Rules 23(a), (b)(2) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

73. Plaintiffs bring their New York Labor Law claim on behalf of all persons who were employed by Defendants at any time since March 2013, to the entry of judgment in this case (the "Class Period"), who were non-exempt employees within the meaning of the New York Labor Law and have not been paid for hours actually worked as well as overtime wages as required in violation of the New York Labor Law (the "Class").

74. The persons in the Class identified above are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. Although the precise number of such persons is unknown, and the facts on which the calculation of that number are presently within the sole control of the Defendants, upon information and belief, there are thirty-five (35) or more members of the Class during the Class Period.

75. The claims of Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of the Class, and a class action is superior to other available methods of fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy - particularly in the context of wage and hour litigation where individual plaintiffs lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit in federal court against corporate defendants.

76. The Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole.

77. This policy or practice was applicable to Plaintiffs and the class members. Application of this policy or practice does/did not depend on the personal circumstances of Plaintiffs or those joining this lawsuit. Rather, the same policy or practice which resulted in the non-payment of overtime to Plaintiffs applies to all class members. Accordingly, the class members are properly defined as:

All AMLs who worked for Defendants within the last six years who were not compensated at time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours in one or more workweeks.

78. Plaintiffs are committed to pursuing this action and have retained competent counsel experienced in employment law and class action litigation.

79. Plaintiffs have the same interests in this matter as all other members of the class and Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the Class.

80. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class which predominates over any questions solely affecting the individual members of the Class, including but not limited to:

- a. whether the Defendants employed the members of the Class within the meaning of the NYLL;
- b. whether the Defendants failed to keep true and accurate time records for all hours worked by Plaintiffs and members of the Class;
- c. what proof of hours worked is sufficient where employers fail in their duty to maintain time records;
- d. whether Defendants failed and/or refused to pay the members of the Class premium pay for hours worked in excess of forty hours per workweek within the meaning of the NYLL;
- e. whether the Defendants are liable for all damages claimed hereunder, including but not limited to, costs, disbursements and attorney's fees; and
- f. whether the Defendants should be enjoined from such violations of the New York Labor Law in the future.

COUNT I
VIOLATION OF 29 U.S.C. §207 OVERTIME COMPENSATION

81. Plaintiffs reallege and reaver paragraphs 1 through 70 of the Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

82. From at least December 2017 and continuing until September 2018, MILLER worked in excess of the forty (40) hours per week for which she was not compensated at the statutory rate of one and one-half times her regular rate of pay.

83. From at least February 2017 and continuing until November 2017, BEDIAKO worked in excess of the forty (40) hours per week for which he was not compensated at the statutory rate of one and one-half times his regular rate of pay.

84. Plaintiffs were, and are entitled to be paid at the statutory rate of one and one-half times their regular rate of pay for those hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours.

85. At all times material hereto, Defendants failed, and continue to fail, to maintain proper time records as mandated by the FLSA.

86. Defendants' actions in this regard were/are willful and/or showed/show reckless disregard for the provisions of the FLSA as evidenced by its continued failure to compensate Plaintiffs at the statutory rate of one and one-half times Plaintiffs' regular rate of pay for the hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per work weeks when they knew, or should have known, such was, and is due.

87. Defendants have failed to properly disclose or apprise Plaintiffs of their rights under the FLSA.

88. Due to the intentional, willful, and unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiffs suffered and continue to suffer damages and lost compensation for time worked over forty (40) hours per work week, plus liquidated damages.

89. Plaintiffs are entitled to an award of unpaid wage, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b).

COUNT II
VIOLATION OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

90. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the members of the Class, re-allege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 70 as if they were set forth again herein.

91. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class were employed by the Defendants within the meaning of the New York Labor Law §§ 2 and 651.

92. Defendants willfully violated Plaintiffs' rights and the rights of the members of the Class, by failing to pay them proper compensation for all hours worked each work week, as well as for overtime compensation at rates no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a work week, in violation of the New York Labor Law and its regulation.

93. The Defendants' New York Labor Law violations have caused Plaintiffs, and the members of the Class, irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

94. Due to the Defendants' New York Labor Law violations, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their unpaid wages, overtime compensation, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and disbursements of the action pursuant to New York Labor Law § 663(1).

COUNT III
VIOLATION OF NEW YORK LABOR LAW
FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE WAGE STATEMENTS

75. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the members of the Class, re-allege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 70 as if they were set forth again herein.

76. Defendants failed to supply Plaintiffs and the Class Members with accurate statements of wages as required under the NYLL, Article 6, § 195(3).

77. Specifically, Defendants failed to provide an accurate number of hours worked by Plaintiffs and the Class Members because Defendants failed to list the time Plaintiffs and the Class Members worked, their regular rate of pay, and/or their accurate overtime rate of pay.

78. Through their knowing or intentional failure to provide Plaintiffs and the Class Members with the accurate wage statements required under the NYLL, Defendants have willfully violated NYLL, Article 6, §§ 190 et seq., and the supporting New York State Department of Labor Regulations.

79. Due to Defendants' willful violations of NYLL, Article 6, § 195(3), Plaintiffs and the Class Members are entitled to statutory penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and injunctive relief and declaratory relief, as provided for by NYLL, Article 6, §198(1-d).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, Plaintiffs on behalf of themselves and all other similarly situated Collective Action Members and members of the Class, respectfully request that this Court grant the following relief:

- a. Certification of this action as a class action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2) and (3) on behalf of the members of the Class and appointing Plaintiffs and their counsel to represent the Class;
- b. Designation of this action as a collective action on behalf of the Collective Action Members and prompt issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) to all similarly situated members of an FLSA Opt-In Class, appraising them of the pendency of this action, permitting them to assert timely FLSA claims in this action by filing individual Consents to Sue pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b) and appointing Plaintiffs and their counsel to represent the Collective Action members;
- c. A declaratory judgment that the practices complained of herein are unlawful under the FLSA and the New York Labor Law;
- d. An injunction against the Defendants and their officers, agents, successors, employees, representatives and any and all persons in concert with it, as provided by law, from engaging in each of the unlawful practices, policies and patterns set forth herein;

- e. An award of unpaid wages and overtime compensation due under the FLSA and the New York Labor Law;
- f. An award of liquidated and/or punitive damages as a result of the Defendants' willful failure to pay wages and overtime compensation pursuant to 29 U.S.C § 216, and the NYLL;
- g. Statutory penalties for each workweek that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the Class Members with accurate wage statements, as provided for by NYLL, Article 6, § 198;
- h. An award of prejudgment and post judgment interest;
- i. An award of costs and expenses of this action together with reasonable attorneys' and expert fees; and
- j. Such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

Pursuant to Rule 38(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all questions of fact raised by the complaint.

Dated: March 21, 2019.
